

Local Government and Public Involvement in Health Act 2007

Publication of the outcome of the Cornwall Community Governance Review of the internal warding at Hayle, held between February 2019 and January 2023

At its meeting on 6th September 2022, the Constitution and Governance Committee of Cornwall Council considered recommendations in relation to the Community Governance Review of the internal warding of Hayle Parish, and made further recommendations to Full Council on 31st January 2023.

Cornwall Council specifically resolved the following:

- That the internal warding of Hayle Parish should comprise of three wards rather than the present two wards;
- That the boundaries of the three wards would be as shown on plan accompanying this notice.
- That the three wards would be made up of:
 - Hayle West comprising 6 Councillors representing approximately 3,225 electors (Polling Districts CHW1, CHW2 and CHW3)
 - Hayle Central comprising 5 Councillors representing approximately 2359 electors (Polling Districts CHW4 and CHW5)
 - Hayle East comprising 4 Councillors representing 1926 electors (Polling Districts CHE1 and CHE 2)
- The changes will take effect from the next scheduled parish elections in May 2025.

Reason: In accordance with the requirements of the Local Government and Public Health Act 2007, and having regard to the related statutory guidance, Members considered that it was appropriate to change the internal warding of Hayle Parish as the proposal offers a better representation to the electorate in the area.
